Fair Dealing, Fair Terms and a Good Article is John Rudden's Motto. Article is John Rudden's Motto.

He sells for cash, but scarcity of money need not deprive any one of home comforts. A small cash payment as an evidence of good faith is all that is required at first, and future payments can be made monthly or weekly, to suit the purchaser. Goods delivered on first payment. This is the plan pursued in the past, and the same course will be continued at the Cash and Credit stores of John Rudden. 330 and 332 Seventh street northwest. Give him a call.

The Latest Wonder.

Humphrey's Wine Parlors. The phonograph sings and repeats all the latest songs and sayings. The only original McGinty, by Mr. Flynn, a concert within itself. A full brass band every night. Shaffer and Blakeley's latest success, 'The Nigger and the Hee,' etc. Professor Well's latest success on the banjo, 415 Thirteenth street northwest. Houghton & Co.'s Spring Specialties, Houghton & Co.'s Spring Specialties.

This firm is in receipt of many specialties in the newest styles of spring goods. Their stock is complete in all the latest styles of furniture upholstering, decorations and an unlimited assortment of nobby specialties. This prominent business house is centrally located at 1218 and 1220 F street northwest, and keeps in stock the same class of goods that can be found in any first-class store in New York. The accommodations are far superior and the price of the goods are the same. All good citizens desiring to build up their beautiful Capital City will certainly patronize the local merchants, especially this liberal and fair-dealing firm.

Olympian Club Entertainment Edel's Hall was crowded last night at the opening entertainment of the Olympian Club, a recently organized athletic club. The entire evening was given up to a display of athletic sports, and there were a number of bouts between the better known professional loxers of the city. Young and Lamon, Northridge and Davit, Fielden and Nally, Lally and O'Rouke and Green and O'Rouke were paired and their exhibitions of the manly art loudly applicated.

Drove Over a Child.

Charles H. Richardson, while driv ing on H street, near Ninth, yesterday afternoon, accidently run over the 5 year old daughter of Dr. Schrader. picked up the child and took her to the home of her parents, No. 804 Ninth street, and Dr. Walthaupter was summoned. He pronounced the injuries of a serious but not dangerous character. No complaint was made against Mr. Richardson, as the accident could not have very well been avoided.

Sent to the Reform School,

Judge Bingham sent Thomas H. Welch, the 12-year-old boy, who stole $54 from the residence of George W. Childs, to the Reform School yesterday afternoon. General Carrington de-fended the boy but his guilt was so well established by the testimony given that an attorney's services were of little benefit. Welch is naturally a very bright little fellow, and it was amusing to see him coach his attorney on certain points in his defense

Knocked Down by a Wagon, Henry Herbert of Twenty-sixth and M streets was knocked down and seriously injured about the head and face by a wagon, driven by an unknown colored man, near the corner of Sixth street and Maine avenue southwest, about 10 o'clock this forenoon. TROUBLE AMONG RECHABITES, Grand Chief Ruler Webb Called on for an Explanation. The meetlag of the Rechabltes of this city last night was not devold of chief ruler, Frank E. De Yoe, who is on a visit to this city on a tour of inves-tigation, in calling the meeting to order announced that Mr. W. J. Webb, who is grand chief ruler of the District and grand high secretary of the High Tent. would have to explain certain matters relating to his accounts, and stated that Frank A. Alkens of Waterloo, N. Y., had been appointed his successor.

In a subsequent interview Mr. De Yoe said that Mr. Webb had never turned over a cent to the treasurer dur-ing the eight months he has held the office, and that there must have been between $400 and $500 paid him. He said that unless the books were turned ver and a statement furnished that egal proceedings would be instituted. The election of officers for the District Grand Tent resulted: P. G., C. R. Loveless; G. C. R., J. C. Lee; G. D. R., P. B. Jones; grand secretary, Thomas W. Scott; treasurer, J. E. Minnix; grand visitor and lecturer, W. M. Hall; grand chaplain, T. B. Marche; grand levite, R.W. Johnson; G. I. G., S. R. Mundell. After the officers had been installed the meeting ediapyrand.

meeting adjourned.

Mr. Webb was not at home when a Chirtic reporter called this morning, but his wife was evidently conversant with the trouble, for she stated that he had been elected by the High Tent and had a right to retain possession of the books until his successor was elected.

TRIED TO KILL HIMSELF.

Henry Johnson Was Out of Employ Henry Johnson attempted to commit uicide at the boarding-house of Mrs. Gannon, at No. 1240 New Hampshire ivenue, yesterday afternoon. Johnson had only begun boarding with Mrs. Gannon yesterday. He came there and stated that he had just returned from a visit to New York and on the advice visit to New York and on the advice of friends had come there to board. He was given a nicely-furnished room adjoining the parlor.

Johnson left the house soon afterward, saying he was going to see about getting his trunk. He returned about 4 o'clock with his luggage and went to his room. About 5 o'clock Mrs. Gannon was startled by cries of murder and help coming from the room occupied by the new boarder. She went into the psrlor, and found Johnson standing in the doorway of his room, with blood the doorway of his room, with blood spurting from a gash in his throat, and in his hand he held a bloody razor, with which the wound had been made.

Johnson was taken to the drug store at the corner of Twenty-first and M streets and from there to the Emer gency Hospital, where his wounds were dressed by Dr. Ellyson. Johnson gives as his reason for committing the act that he was out of employment and money and very despondent.
